COUNCILMAN ROSS called forward TODD SCHWARTZ, who was joined by his wife HEATHER, from Ward 6 and recognized him as February's Citizen of the Month for his activism in the Northwest, particularly in his neighborhood. He moved to Las Vegas three years ago and immediately started working on making his community a better place to live. He sought to be elected president of his homeowners association, created a community newsletter and, most notably, worked hard to get the gas lamps in the neighborhood replaced with solar lighting. He devotes many hours to the community while working full-time as a project manager at a trade show company.

MR. SCHWARTZ accepted the plaque, a copy of which is made a part of the minutes, and encouraged others to get involved in making the entire Las Vegas community a better place.
